Holiday Parking Discounts

Sacramento International Airport (SMF) offers another reason to choose the convenient, easy to use airport during the holidays; discounted parking. With the lowest parking rates among major airports in Northern California, the discount offers an added benefit its competitors can't match.

"We are pleased to offer this discount to our passengers again this year," said G. Hardy Acree, Director of Airports. "This discount is a 'thank you' to our customers for making us their airport of choice in Northern California. Our success would not be possible without customer support"

Discounts are available for days parked Wednesday, Nov. 21, through Monday, Nov. 26, and again Friday, Dec. 21, through Wednesday, Jan. 2:

$1 off each full day of Economy Parking

$2 off each full day of Daily Parking

$3 off each full day in Hourly Parking

Visit the Sacramento International Airport's Parking Web page for details on parking lot locations, regular rates and more.

New Art Exhibit in Terminal B

A special exhibition of limited edition prints by Melissa Chandon is now on view throughout Terminal B at Sacramento International Airport. Chandon's lavish oil paintings document the scenic highways and byways of California as well as the iconic Americana of roadside attractions, vintage modes of transportation, and neon signs.

Born as a child of the 50's, Chandon was raised on road trips. Her parents saw cross country travel as a means of educating their children about the humanity of the American experience. Chandon is committed to documenting this classic era of U.S. architecture and history before it disappears from the landscape. For more information on the artist, visit: <http://melissachandon.com>

The Sacramento International Airport Gallery is facilitated through the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission (SMAC), a City/County Agency, and in cooperation with the Sacramento County Airport System. For further information on programs and opportunities available through SMAC go to: www.sacculture.com.

ARCO Gas Station Now Open

Airport customers now enjoy more services when they fill their gas tanks at Sacramento International Airport. Arco AM/PM opened its new gas station and mini-mart at the airport on September 28, 2007. Upgrades at the station include eight additional pumps, enhanced food and beverage choices and restrooms with changing tables. Arco AM/PM also added an automated car wash facility.

"The new facility boasts added amenities to best serve the needs of our customers and ensure superior customer service." said Hardy Acree, Director of Airports. "We appreciate our customers' patience during the construction period and believe they will be pleased with the result."
